Hong Kong, April 14th 2015—Barclays won the Best GBP Clearing Bank in Asia Pacific award for 2015 during the 16th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at the Four Seasons on April 14th 2015.

Barclays has a significant market share for GBP clearing in the Asia Pacific. The bank offers direct corporate access which allows the submission of bulk payment files outside regular banking hours. Its clients also have access to an alternative payment capability as a contingency where the time is of the essence.

About 1,000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Transaction Banking Awards under the Asian Banker Business Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

The Transaction Banking Awards evaluate banks' achievements in cash management, payments, and trade finance. The winners for these awards are determined through a combination of surveys, interviews and field research by The Asian Banker's research staff. A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.
