- Has one of widest network of correspondent banks amongst Vietnamese banks.

Hong Kong, April 14th 2015—Eximbank won the Best Trade Finance Bank in Vietnam award for 2015 during the 16th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at the Four Seasons on April 14th 2015.

Eximbank is one of the first banks in Vietnam to offer trade finance products and has strong expertise in foreign exchange and international settlement. It has a dedicated and well-trained team of managers, officers and staff with high professional competence.

To tackle some of the main challenges face in their trade finance business, they have been active in strengthening risk management, improving financial capability and strengthening their position in the domestic and international markets.

They are also looking to developing their IT infrastructure, focussing on hi-tech, innovative products. They are also restructuring their organisation and management model in the direction of streamlined operations and optimising efficiency.

About 1,000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Transaction Banking Awards under the Asian Banker Business Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

The Transaction Banking Awards evaluate banks' achievements in cash management, payments, and trade finance. The winners for these awards are determined through a combination of surveys, interviews and field research by The Asian Banker's research staff. A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.
